DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 3. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lundholm et al (US 6,648,107).

Lundholm et al disclose a switching device comprising: a handle (6) movable between a first position (B) and second position (A) the handle also movable to a third position (D) between the first and second positions (see Fig 11), and an evaluation device (col. 5 lines 17-19), the handle being subjected to a preload force toward the third position when the handle is in one of the first and second positions (col. 5 lines 62-65), the evaluation device adapted to output different control signals to an actuating device of the parking brake based on the position of the handle (col. 5 lines 17-19).
